

GÜLLAÇ

One of the most traditional (and delicious!) Ramadan desserts from Turkey. In this treat the delicate scents of pomegranate, rose water and pistachio powder perfectly blend within a smooth, silky texture reminiscent of a Western mousse.

Derived from the Middle-Eastern ubiquitous dessert known as baklava, the güllaç is usually served during after-dusk Ramadan feasts all over Turkey.

Click on the pictures for a variation on this traditional RECIPE!

