Switch on switches 1 & 2, wait a minute and switch off number 2. Go upstairs: whichever bulb is on is wired to switch 1, whichever is off and hot is wired to switch number 2, and the third is wired to switch 3.

The Bear Riddle

It all happened on the North Pole. When the man shot, he must have been right on the North Pole. So, it makes sense to assume that the only color the bear could be was white.
