

How did we get from Reagan's "Tear down this wall!", to Trump's "I will build a great, great wall on our southern border, and I will make Mexico pay for that wall. Mark my words."? And here we naively thought that after 1989 we were done with walls. Trump's presidency is just at its beginning and it has already shown to be the most controversial ever. Protests all over the world erupted as soon as Trump was elected. Having received less popular votes than his opponent, it's no wonder most of these protests are taking place in the U.S. After Trump signed his first executive orders, many World leaders have also started to criticize Trump's policies. Most notably, his executive order to ban people coming from 7 Muslim nations has sparked incredible controversy, and caused a lot of trouble even for American citizens. Many families were separated, even a 5-year-old child has reportedly been handcuffed and kept in holding for hours.
