

personal english

IDIOMS
Two heads are better than one.
Eyes on me
shooting the breeze
Zip your lips.
Something fishy is going on.
I'M ON CLOUD NINE!
Keep your eyes peeled.

Idiom #9

Going Out on a Limb

Going out on a limb conveys the idea of taking a risk whenever you state an opinion or do something that is not commonly accepted. It's similar to going against the flow, but – instead of underlining the merit of opposing the mainstream – it rather emphasizes the risk of isolation inherent to this choice.

Winston Churchill went out on a limb when he claimed that democracy may not be the best form of government.