these tribes

We sometimes wonder how it would feel to spot an UFO or get in contact with alien creatures we don't know anything about. For some people, though, UFOs are...us. Every once in a while some of the 67 lost tribes inhabiting the Brazilian Amazon Rainforest experience this scary and thrilling encounter when they spot in the sky those flying gizmos that helicopters must seem to them. Most of the times those helicopters fly over their territories authorities and researchers willing to ascertain the existence of these uncontacted tribes. However, contact is hardly ever made so as to avoid both spreading illnesses those peoples are not immune to and impinging on their freedom.
